

The radio station K-LOVE has been a very important part of my life and my family's life in my community, it haelps to make people more aware of the goodness of people and more responsible for their actions. If we as a nation are to grow and become healthier, cleaner and more civic, we need to keep K-LOVE on the air to assisst in this